New Room Conference
September 22–24, 2021
Nashville, Tennessee

THE DOOR
IS OPEN

“See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.”

REVELATION 3:8

Welcome.

In the spring of 2014, we weren't ready for the New Room Conference, but the Lord seemed to "have need of it." Full of faith, with no idea what we were getting into, and a little under six months lead time, we made ready. It began with a prayer meeting on that next Wednesday. Our prayer, inspired by the deep longing for God in Psalm 42, was singular— "Jesus, would you meet with us?"

On September 18, 2014, the second day of that first conference, at around 10:40 a.m., in the midst of one of the keynote presentations, the Holy Spirit seized the agenda. And we have never gotten it back. As Jesus revealed himself and his purposes, men and women began to give themselves unreservedly, with an uncommon abandon, to him alone.

The small fires of great awakening were lit. And everywhere that happens, from the Day of Pentecost forward, a door opens into a new room for the ever-expanding kingdom of heaven on earth.

Every Wednesday since that first Wednesday more than seven years ago, our prayer has remained the same, "Jesus, would you meet with us?" At that first prayer meeting, months before the first gathering, a door into a New Room was opened and it has never closed. We don't think of the New Room as a three-day event in September. It is a place, an "on-earth-as-it-is-in-heaven" space we share and hold between us—holy ground—an ongoing, unceasing, ever-surprising meeting with God.

As the global pandemic and all its disruption and death has met up with the already churning forces of darkness and polarizing chaos all over the world, we discern the awakening activity of Jesus like never before. At the point where we seem to be the most tired and beleaguered and hard pressed on every side, we sense the readiness of the Holy Spirit to move like never before in our lifetimes. We sense a new door has opened and we are praying this New Room Conference will be the opportunity to walk through it into thousands of new rooms all over the world.

Let's be clear. All of this is for awakening. The measure of a meeting with God is not so much what happens in the meeting, but where the meeting goes next. New Room is not interested in becoming a bigger and bigger conference, or even a "movement" for that matter. We are praying for the launch of many movements—through you—through banded hearts, bonded homes, apostolic churches, and awakened cities.

A Great Awakening is the messy confluence of many people moving not in organizational coordination but in a divine concertedness, banding, praying, sowing, and reaping. It's not about an association or a denomination or a conference but a transcendent fellowship of traveling love, existing in the courts of heaven and moved on earth by the unseen hand of God, to do impossible things in unimaginable ways.

We want to hear from you about the doors of opportunity opening up in your hearts, homes, churches, and cities. And how about joining us next Wednesday for the watch for awakening prayer meeting at Noon (CST), and the one after that. We are eight years in and could use some fresh reinforcements. Find us at watchforawakening.com. As we like to say, prayer is not the only thing we do, but it is the first thing, and from this first thing come many things. We will see you on the field.

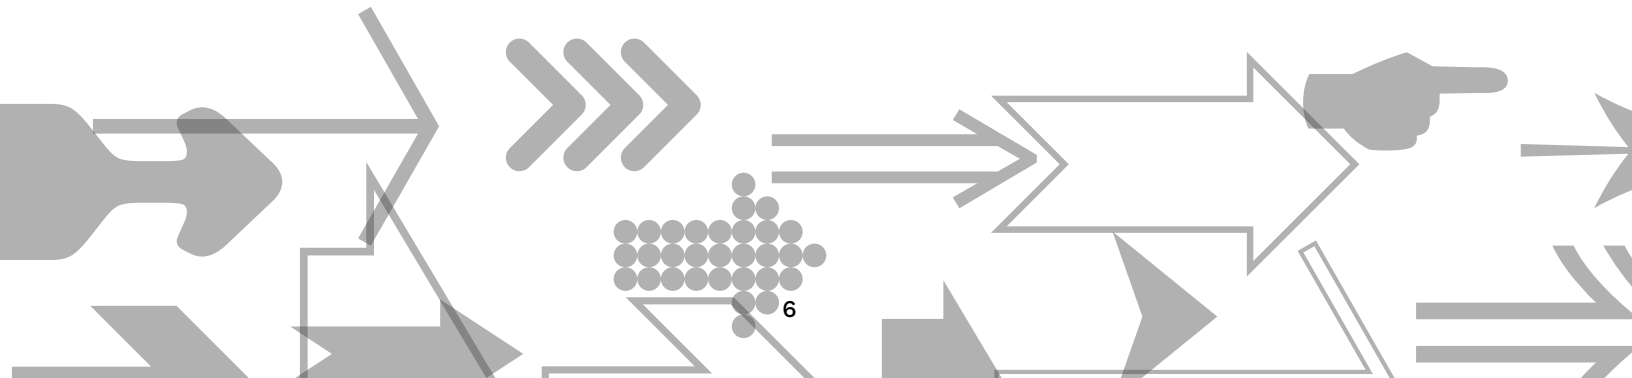

For the Awakening,

J. D. Walt and the Farm Team

THE DOOR

The Door Is Open

A door has been opened to you
A door of opportunity
Once shut, is now gaping wide
Can you see it?
Fading pews
Making room for a people
Who don't take gathering for granted
The illusion of contentment vanishing like lesser stars in the presence of the morning
Religious burnout stoking the fires of revival
Can you feel it?
Unprecedented times
Everything's changed forever
There's no going back to normal
Nothing will ever be the same again
But the same was no garden
Was calloused hearts and normalized thistles
Would hold no flame
No burning for the spirit
Church of broken candles
More wax than wick
The same was a comfortable veil
Hiding our frailty and dependence
Blockage disguised as blessing
Distraction and facade
We built walls and called it church
They fell down and some wanted to call it quits
What a wonder the empty tomb must have been
To catch a glimpse of real hope through the cracks of our crumbling expectations
Those expectations have been shattered again
Every piece that hits floor

RIS OPEN

Sounds like Someone standing at a door and knocking
A door has been opened up to you
Endings become an entrance
From closed, to cracked, to chasm wide
A way has been made
Gates swing open
As King appears
Doors fold inward, bowing the only way they know how They've unlearned the language of locks
Access has been granted
An invitation has been given
A welcome mat sits where a warning sign once stood
This is no blind optimism
This is the budding of opportunity
A time for sowers of seed, and laborers of harvest
To speak words of empathy to a world fluent in grief
To say we get it
Our hope was once laid in a tomb also
There's never been a better time to declare a gospel of resurrection
Can you see it?
A door has been opened
To a new room and new season
But an age old commission and communion
Come sowers, the harvest is plentiful
Come weary, there's an expanse of rest in the Father's presence
Come awakening
Come awake, oh sleeper
Arise from the dead
And Christ shall shine on you
Through an open door

David Thomas

David Thomas is executive director of New Room. David is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church. Recently he completed a PhD focused on patterns of prayer that have preceded awakening movements in history. David is board vice-chair of Alpha USA and enjoys outdoor pursuits, Celtic Christian traditions, and anything with his wife, Karen, and their kids, Luke, John Paul, and Mary Esther.

Topic:

DOORS WIDE OPEN

“What troubles have we seen, what conflicts have we passed, fightings without, and fears within, since we assembled last.” Charles Wesley’s words in 1749 from And Are We Yet Alive have never sounded more valid or current than today as the New Room family reconvenes. This opening hour is an invitation for all—for every one of us—to come as we are to the Lord’s Table and find the seat saved for us by Jesus. He is waiting inside this door for your healing and refreshment.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. In what ways have the challenges of the last year or two changed you?
2. What do you need Jesus to do for you or in you at this year’s New Room Conference?
3. What door of opportunity can you see right now in your heart, your home, your church, or your city?

Carolyn Moore

Carolyn Moore is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church who has spent her ministry developing new congregations in Athens and Evans, Georgia. She is the author of four Bible studies (Encounter Jesus, Encounter the Spirit, Encounter the Father, and Supernatural) and one book (The 19: Questions to Kindle a Wesleyan Spirit). Carolyn and her son-in-law co-host a podcast called The Art of Holiness, which focuses on conversations about supernatural ministry, practical holiness, and intergenerational encouragement. Carolyn has been actively involved in the Wesleyan Covenant Association since its inception and has a passion for mobilizing people to positions of ministry leadership. She is happily married to Steve Moore, a high school history teacher. Their daughter lives in Tennessee with her family.

Topic:

HOW DO WE GET WELL?

In Peter's experience of being miraculously delivered from a prison (not of his own making), his story exposes us to some spiritual realizations about how things work in the realm of the supernatural. We learn the tactics of the enemy of our souls, how we respond when we feel out of control, and how we can find our way back toward freedom. This one is for those who are ready to be well again.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What does this scene in Peter's life teach you about the enemy of your soul?
2. What does it reveal to you about your own response?
3. What vision does it give you for finding your way back to freedom?

Allen Jackson

Allen Jackson has served World Outreach Church since 1981, becoming senior pastor in 1989. Under his leadership, WOC has grown to a congregation of more than 15,000 through outreach and community activities and worship services designed to share the gospel, with his messages broadcast on multiple national media outlets. With degrees from Oral Roberts University and Vanderbilt University, and additional studies at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Pastor Jackson is uniquely equipped to help people develop a love and understanding of God's Word.

Topic:

ALIGNING YOUR LIFE WITH THE HEART OF GOD

In this session you will get to hear from the senior pastor of our host venue at World Outreach Church. Over the past couple of years, the Seedbed team has gotten to know Allen and the more we knew him, the more we wanted our New Room family to hear from him. With humility and eagerness to see God's kingdom move upon the earth, Allen's ministry and teachings have seen significant global impact. The interview topics will include the incredible story that gave birth to World Outreach and the major role that prayer has played in the life of this church. After the interview we have invited Allen to open the Word and encourage us in our faith.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What story most stood out to you from the interview and why?
2. Where did you feel challenged or encouraged?
3. What action, change, or decision did you find yourself moving toward?

Awakening Mini Course

The Hidden Places of Awakening Origins

New Harvest Sanctuary

We long to see a renewed church. We are desperate for the transformation of society. But Scripture and history teach how God does not awaken broadly where he has not first moved deeply. He begins with our inner lives and our most intimate circles of concern and love. This mini-course brings focus to the crucial yet often concealed contexts of the Spirit's renewing work in our hearts and homes. With so much pressing upon our hearts recently, and all that has been required of our households, we seek a deep drink from the wells of God's grace for our souls and families.

The Surprising Power of the Dinner Church

All Nations

For the first three hundred years the church met around Jesus Tables. They were motivated to do so after Jesus birthed the New Passover during the Last Supper. The church grew from a movement of hundreds to a movement of tens-of-millions while practicing that New Passover sociology of "doing church." To watch it being birthed again in our day is both theologically intriguing and missiologically inspiring.

Band Together

How a Discipleship Band Is an Essential Need for Every Christian

Tent

More than perhaps ever before, we are learning that the church is not the building, the programs, or even our ability to gather in mass. The church in its most fundamental form is where two or three gather in Jesus' name. How we gather and what we practice when we gather makes all the difference in terms of transformation and discipleship. Discipleship bands are groups of three to five people who read together, meet together, and pray together to become the love of God for one another and the world. Bands are all about creating a safe and honest relational context where we can grow as disciples of Jesus. Come join the original discipleship band with J. D. Walt, Mark Benjamin, and Omar Rikabi to learn more about this model and how to begin to implement this in your church or ministry. Topics will include: why we band, what is a band, how to get started, the seven commitments of a discipleship band, and sustaining growth as a band.

Awakening and the Emerging Adult Generation

Atrium

It's estimated that 42 million young people could leave the church by 2050. If awakening were to come among emerging generations, what could it look like? In this breakout, we'll explore the emerging adult stage of life and current cultural trends, to highlight the unique opportunity that the church has to reach and form the Millennial and GenZ generations. Our panel will share from decades of campus ministry, as well as from their work with the Awakening Project—a national initiative of students and pastors contending for the college campus.

From Chaos to Creativity

Tent

In an increasingly chaotic world we seem to live with constant disorder. What if chaos is more than the check-engine-light of lost causes? What if it can actually be harnessed as a tool for innovation, conversion, and originality? Creativity flourishes on the edge of chaos. Inspired by the powerful picture of creation in Genesis 1:2 where the formless, dark void is transformed in God's mighty hands, we can learn to harness the creative power of chaos and disruption. Learn practical tools for increasing creativity and productivity in life and ministry often marked by the uncontrolled and unexpected. Where you and I may experience confusion and disorder, God sees an opportunity for something new—for rebirth and renewal. God did this in the beginning, he did it again at the cross, and with renewed vision for our disordered world today, we look to God to do it again.

Reclaiming Evangelism

Moving Beyond Attractional Church to Mobilizing Everyday Missionaries

Atrium

For some in the church, evangelism has become something of a dirty word. But scripture shows us simple person-to-person evangelism, empowered by the Holy Spirit, was how the gospel spread and transformed the world. Church growth fads and attractional gimmicks do not produce lasting fruit and will not work in an increasingly post-Christian culture. In the West we have to start thinking like missionaries again. In this breakout session we will discuss practical ways to help churchgoers listen to and follow the leading of the Holy Spirit, to share their faith right where they live, work, and play. This session is all about mobilizing the church to live as everyday missionaries.

Matt Reynolds
President and Founder of Spirit & Truth

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

- 1. What’s one practical step you could take this week to share your faith in a new and bold way?
- 2. Who at my church do I need to evangelize about evangelism?
- 3. What shifts are needed in my congregation to move beyond an attractional model rooted in Christendom thinking and toward a missionary mentality?

So many questions have flooded our thinking and praying these past couple of years, and we've needed a trusted forum for talking them out. What has happened to us? What do we know now that we didn't know before? Perhaps most importantly, how does God see this moment, and what does he wait for in our response? This year's panel will help us frame current reality with discernment and courage, seeking the kind of candid, rugged faith our day requires.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What do you now understand differently than you did eighteen months ago? What shifts can you observe in your understanding of God? of church? of yourself?
2. Where is your greatest opportunity for growth: resilience? repentance? prayer?
3. What practical steps can you take to participate in what God is wanting to do?

In January 2019, Allen founded the Excellencies of Christ Ministries, which exists to proclaim the excellencies of Christ to the ends of the earth and to disciple the body of Christ through prayer, preaching, creative resources, and the building up of the local church.

Allen lives with his wife, Rachel, in Colorado Springs. He regularly travels, ministers, and consults with various ministries, local churches, and houses of prayer around the world.

Topic:

THE HEART OF THE FATHER IN THE HEARTS OF HIS PEOPLE

The awakening was only three years old when Wesley distilled its defining mark, in "The Character of a Methodist," down to Romans 5:5: "A Methodist is one who has 'the love of God shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Ghost given unto him.'" All we've been through and what we've shared today adds force to our recognition of how deeply we need this love in every level of life. Tonight we open our hearts again to the gift of the Father's heart, offered in abundance by his Spirit.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What stands out—from all you have heard this day, particularly tonight—as an invitation from the Father?
2. Is there anything causing resistance to receiving? Could you bring that to him?
3. How would assurance in your standing as daughter or son of the Father change the way you sow for awakening?

Topic:

LIGHT THE CANDLE: THE PRACTICE OF ACTIVE WAITING AND HOPING

Lamentations 3 drips with grief, pain, and, of course, lament. But the writer is not without hope. The believers are encouraged to not abandon the covenant, but instead to wait on the Lord. But waiting isn’t a passive ascent; rather, waiting is active, it’s anticipatory, it’s hope-filled. Many of us church leaders feel as though we are standing in the rubble of “what was.” Now what? Following the lead of Lamentations 3, let us “light our candles” and actively wait.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What is the rubble of “what was” that you are actively lamenting?
2. What are practices of active waiting that Christians could do more of?
3. How can we light the candle in our own contexts?

J. D. Walt

John David (J. D.) Walt is the founder and sower-in-chief of Seedbed. For the past seventeen years he has served as a vice president and dean at Asbury Theological Seminary. A sought after speaker and conference leader, author of a growing collection of books, and a songwriter, J. D. writes daily for the Seedbed Daily Text. He lives in Franklin, Tennessee, with his four children, David, Mary Kathryn, Lily, and Samuel.

Topic:

AS LONG AS IT IS CALLED TODAY

To sow for a great awakening is to play the long game. While we stand at the precipice of opportunity, we must simultaneously embrace the possibilities and count the costs. We have reaped where we have not sown. For many of us, it is a sobering moment to contemplate sowing where we may not (ourselves) reap. We will take the long view of our children's children's children and bring all the energy of the Spirit working within us to sowing for awakening today, as long as it is called TODAY.

Follow-Up Discussion Questions

1. What is Jesus revealing to you through the Word and Spirit?
2. Are you realizing the glorious possibilities of the rest of your life?
3. Are you waking up to the gravity of the long game of great awakening and its multi-generational impacts?

SPOKEN WORD

Lo Alaman could be considered an artist, speaker, minister, and Lakers fan most days of the week. But there isn't a day he doesn't consider himself a husband, a father, and a son of the Most High God. Whether preaching, spitting poetry, or just chilling with new best friends, Lo seeks to create moments to minister the love of Jesus in every space he enters. Lo lives in Texas with his wife, Erika, and daughter, Emersyn.

Seedbed is thrilled to release this collection of poems, laments, and prayers from the "Poet Laureate of New Room," Lo Alaman.

"We Sang A Dirge shows Lo's deep love for his community, and God's deep love for the oppressed in poems that not only sound beautiful, but also carry the hope of a more beautiful future."

– Bob Goff

What Is Seedbed?

Seedbed is a not-for-profit ministry organization that provides resources, training, and tools to help believers wake up to the love of Jesus, and sow that love into hearts, homes, churches, and cities.

To these ends, Seedbed focuses on gathering a global fellowship of sowers, connecting this fellowship in banded discipleship, and crafting discipleship resources to facilitate extravagant sowing.

On the next page you can meet the people who work hard to achieve this vision. On the following pages, we'd like to tell you about just a few of the exciting things we've been working on.

Each year Seedbed creates and gives away more than a million dollars' worth of resources. This is only possible thanks to the generous financial support of nearly 5,000 sowers on what we call The Seed Team.

Those partners share our sense of the Holy Spirit's readiness to move like never before in our lifetimes. This is a moment of great opportunity, urgency, and courage. We must invest our lives and resources into the kind of change that will bear fruit in our communities today and for generations to come.

Join the Seed Team

Since 2012, Seedbed has been continually developing new ways of helping people wake up to the profound love of Jesus.

As we look forward toward 2022, we invite you to partner with us financially as we focus on a few key initiatives:

- Providing encouragement and support to local pastors and church leaders
- Greatly expanding the reach of The Seedbed Daily Text into new channels and audiences
- Building a robust learning community led by world-class teachers and movement leaders.

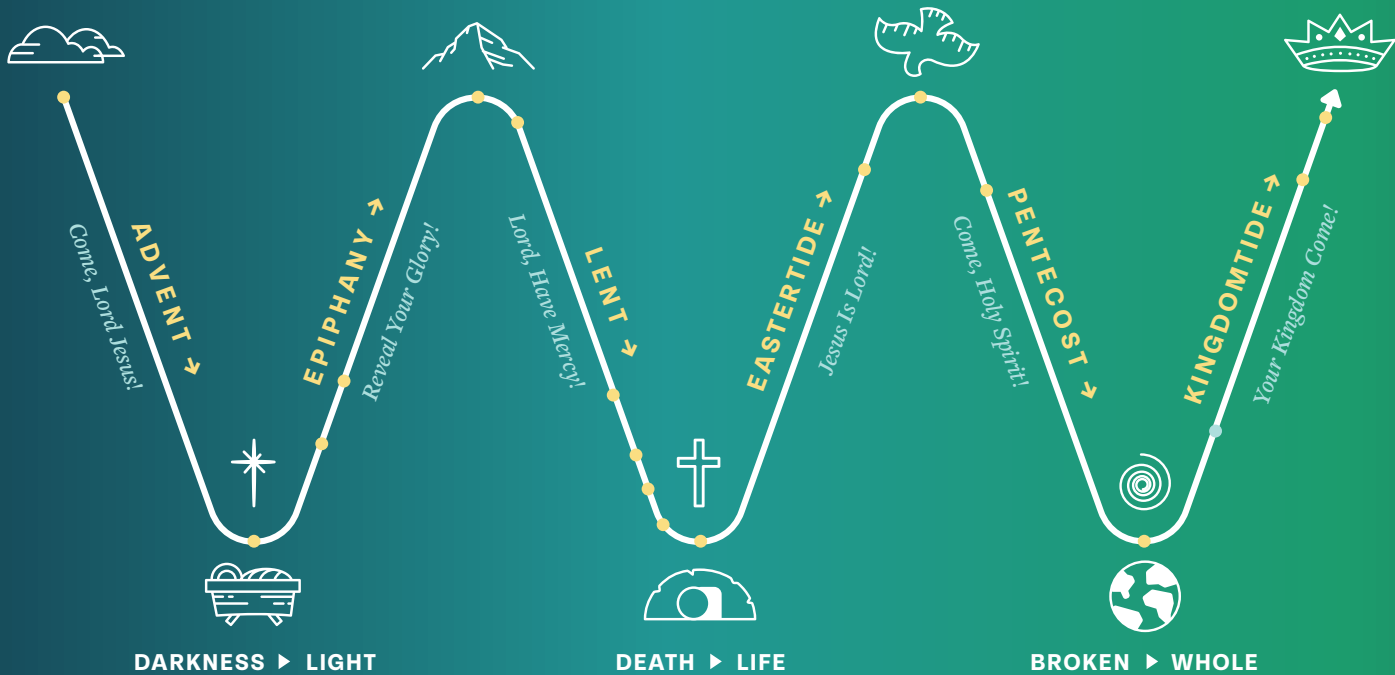

We need the support of those who share our belief in the power of God's love to awaken and transform this world.

If you're interested in joining the Seed Team and supporting us in this work, visit the Seed Team hospitality room so we can connect.

Please consider joining us on this mission to sow the love of Jesus in hearts, homes, churches and cities across our country and throughout the world.

The Awakening Calendar

The Word of God (a.k.a. the Bible) by which we know the Word (a.k.a. Jesus) is the single most important time-telling device in the history of history and in the future of eternity. The map represents the life of Jesus Christ laid out in a linear movemental fashion. It coheres around three epic journeys: Advent through Epiphany (darkness to light); Lent through Eastertide (death to life); and Pentecost through Kingdomtide: (brokenness to wholeness).

It begins at the highest summit where we gaze upon the horizon and behold the second Advent (coming) of Jesus. From there we embark on a descent, leading us to shepherds, angels, and a baby in a manger—Christmas. After twelve days we enter Epiphany, and ascend until we reach the Mount of Transfiguration. Journey two is the descent of all descents as we follow Jesus through forty days of Lent all the way down to the cross and the surprise of all surprises: the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. Here begins an ascent called Eastertide. On the fortieth day Jesus ascends to the right hand of God, and ten days later we gather on Pentecost to receive the Holy Spirit.

The third journey leads down into the valley of vision where we follow Jesus into his kingdom of “on earth as it is in heaven,” and then leads to the movement we call Kingdomtide, back up to the summit where we again gaze upon the far Advent horizon to behold his coming again.

This map sketch is meant to convey the reality that time is not a neverending cyclical process but the movement of God with us. Though there be a beginning, middle, and end, this is the world without end.

discipleship bands

John Wesley once famously said, “There is no holiness apart from social holiness.” Over the years, many have mistakenly asserted that he was talking about social justice.

In reality, he was talking about doing discipleship in the context of real relationships. In essence, you can’t become a real Christian alone. The way forward is as close as a few other people who are willing to band together.

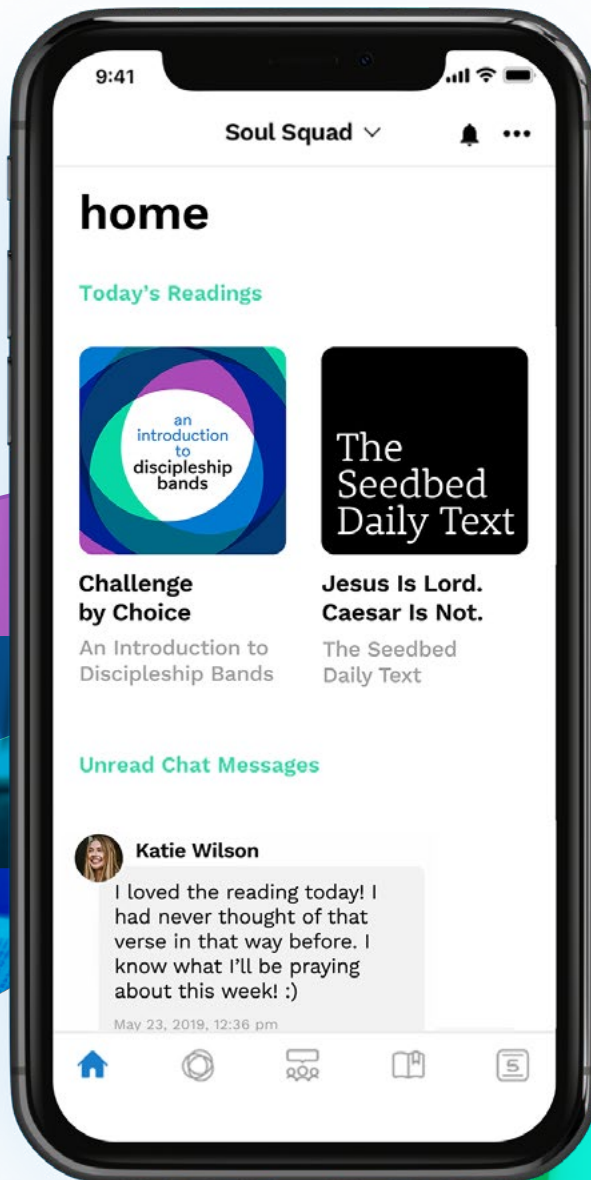

A discipleship band is a group of three to five people who read together, pray together, and meet together to become the love of God for one another and the world.

We’re not talking about a traditional small group or a typical accountability group. The primary curriculum is the lives of the bandmates, joined together in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

time + trust = transformation

download the discipleship bands app and get connected!

The Discipleship Bands app facilitates deep, meaningful band relationships in two ways. First, it delivers discipleship content to you every day, and, second, it brings your band together into a private online group to interact around that content. It's that simple.

TRACKERS

OF FAITH

“Trackers is not just a Sunday lesson but a weekly partnering tool for the whole family . . . it helps kids get a full understanding of the Bible and how it all whispers the name of Jesus.

It is simply one of the best ways to train up the next generation in following Jesus and living it out.”

JON BAILES, LIVING HOPE FELLOWSHIP

Learn more at seedbedkids.com

Bible lessons your kids will love!

We believe that children are capable of extraordinary, faithful discipleship when given the right tools. They understand how Scripture can apply to their lives—often with more conviction and authenticity than adults.

Using a mixed agriculture and time-travel theme, the Trackers curriculum brings kids through the Old and New Testament over two years in chronological order. They learn that in the Old Testament, Jesus was present but concealed, whereas in the New Testament, Jesus was revealed.

In Year 3, students dive deeper into the faith, exploring the creeds, sacraments, and other important theological themes.

For a complete lesson list, visit seedbedkids.com.

Lessons are available in print or digital form. Resources include posters, take-home cards, activity sheets, videos, worship music, and more!

“Trackers has given the children at my church the Big Picture view of the Bible.

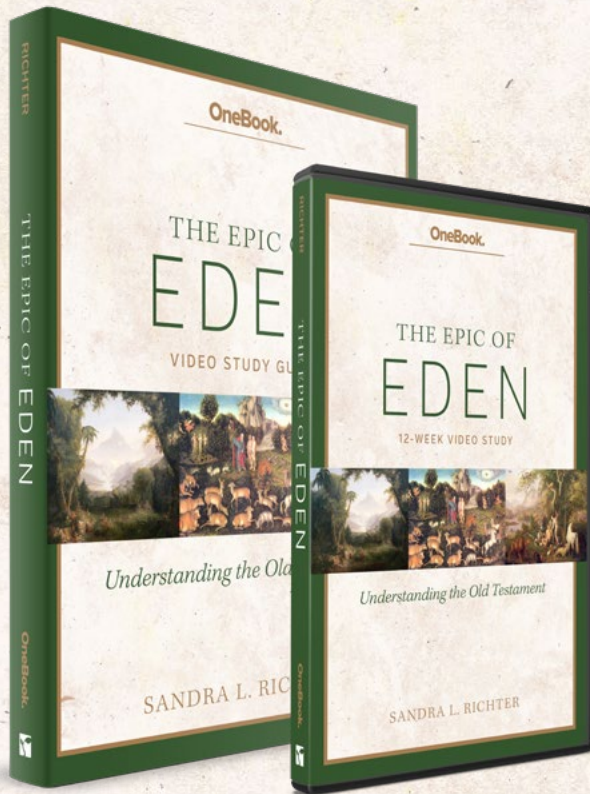

Now they see that the Bible isn’t many stories, it is one big story of God’s covenant of redemption.”

THE EPIC OF EDEN

The Old Testament is more than an unfortunate preface to the part of the Bible that really counts. It's your story.

Does your knowledge of the Old Testament feel like a grab bag of people, books, events, and ideas? How many times have you resolved to really understand the Old Testament? To finally make sense of it? In The Epic of Eden Video Study Guide: Understanding the Old Testament, Dr. Sandra Richter clearly and powerfully communicates a history of God's redeeming grace, weaving together a story that runs from the garden of Eden to the garden of the New Jerusalem.

Through text and video teaching, Dr. Richter uses this twelve-week study to bring a new dimension to the history of the ancient Near East, orienting any study group in time, geography, culture, redemption, and relevance to today—all without diminishing her reader's faith or dumbing down the scripture.

In these pages you'll:

- Gain a rich understanding of the context in which the Old Testament was written
- Make sense of the Old Testament parts, pieces, and stories
- Discover how the the big story of Scripture has serious implications for our present

Perfect for:

- Small groups
- Churchwide studies
- Anyone that struggles to see the Old Testament's relevance to the big story of Scripture

After completing The Epic of Eden Video Study, join Dr. Richter as she focuses specifically on these Old Testament books:

What makes the Psalms so special?

The book of Psalms is well-known and well-worn. It is the Old Testament book most often quoted in the New Testament, and its quotations can be found everywhere from John Milton to Star Trek to congressional speeches. Why so much attention? The Church Father Athanasius said it best—most of Scripture speaks to us, but the Book of Psalms speaks for us.

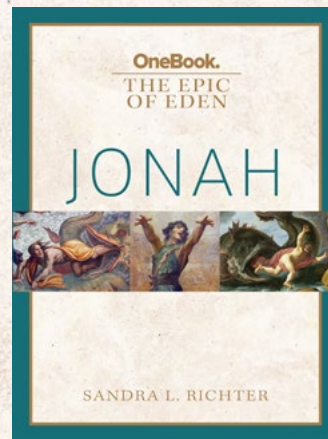

Experience fresh connections to contemporary worship and devotional practices in this eight-session video-based study with well-known scholar Sandy Richter. Indulge in the biblical study of the Psalms, letting Sandy do the heavy lifting of research and translation, which in turn allows you to engage the Bible in a deeply sensitive way.

God on Mute

Pete Greig

In this heart-searching, honest, and deeply profound book, Pete Greig looks at the hard side of prayer, how to respond when there seem to be no answers, and how to cope with those who seek to interpret our experience for us. Here is a story of faith, hope, and love beyond all understanding.

“A Christian classic.”

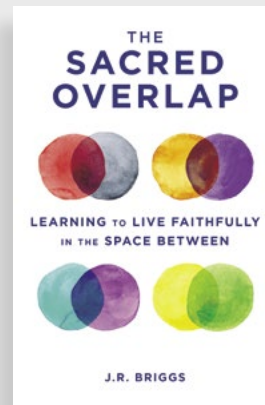

—Justin Welby,
archbishop of Canterbury

Deep Peace

Todd Hunter

In Deep Peace, Todd Hunter analyzes the anxiety and desperation of our current moment and leads readers to receive the peace of Jesus and experience the deep wholeness that comes from the peace of God. He articulates a biblical framework for peace and provides practices to help Christians value and seek peace, becoming people of peace in ordinary life.

The Sacred Overlap

J.R. Briggs

J.R. Briggs offers a fresh understanding of evangelism and discipleship, showing how we need to be engaged in both at the same time. The Sacred Overlap helps readers see that Christians are called to live with their feet firmly planted in two different worlds—in both heaven and earth—living naturally with grace and truth. Only then can a Christian be a faithful witness in the way of Jesus.

These titles are available at the Seedbed bookstore and online at my.seedbed.com.

Earlier Zondervan + Seedbed titles include Unfailing by Rob Renfro and Marks of a Movement by Winfield Bevins.

How to Follow Jesus

Craig Springer

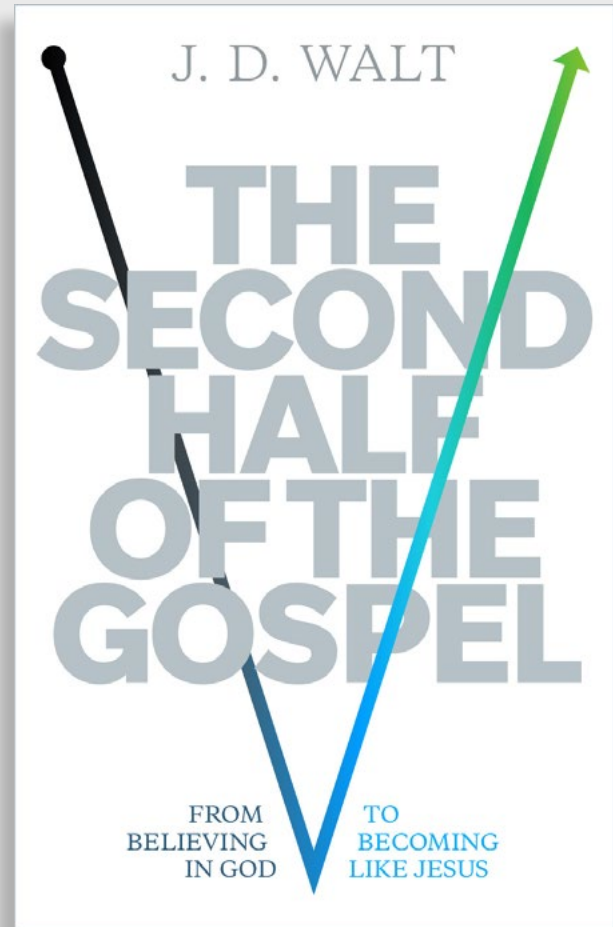

Millions of people want to follow Jesus, but don't know how. Sharing personal stories from his own journey to a mature faith, Craig Springer sets readers at ease and offers them practical, easy-to-implement advice for following Jesus. Destined to become a timeless classic, How to Follow Jesus is a must read for new and returning Christians.

Why I Am Still Surprised by the Power of the Spirit

Jack Deere

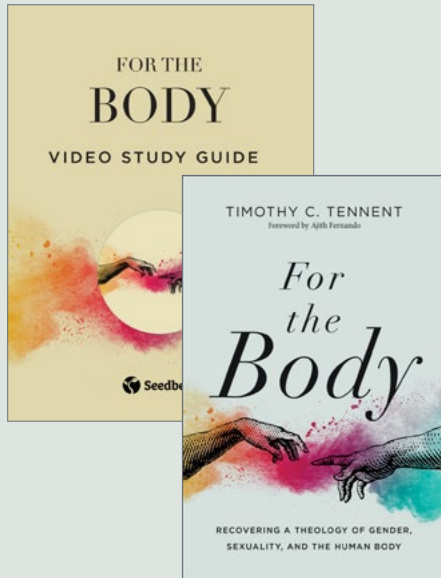

In this modern classic, now nearly completely rewritten, Jack Deere demonstrates that the Scriptures teach that God is healing and speaking today just as he did 2000 years ago. He explains the nature of spiritual gifts, offers sound advice on discovering and using the gifts in church today, and shows how all of this is part of how God's deepens our friendship with him.

COMING IN 2022!

For fifty years, Christians have focused on the first half of the gospel—persuading people to make decisions for Jesus so they would go to heaven when they died. Yet we've missed an essential part of Jesus' mission. People also need the second half of the gospel—what it means to become a disciple of Jesus. In this long-awaited book, J. D. Walt offers a practical process for growing past simply believing and behaving to truly beholding and becoming.

New from Timothy Tennent

For The Body and For The Body Video Study

There is a lot of cultural confusion surrounding the significance of our bodies. How can the church carve a meaningful space that embraces our bodies as gifts from God while charitably modeling a lifestyle committed to holistically honoring his vision? In For the Body, Timothy Tennent offers a welcomed, integrated theology of the body based on our sacramental presence in the world.

Check out the video resource and study guide that will help groups come around this urgent conversation.

Foundations of the Christian Faith

This collection of indispensable writings by Timothy Tennent works its way through doctrinal affirmations like the Apostles' Creed, the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, and other foundational content on the means of grace. This single volume work contains core material essential for leaders and laypeople alike who recognize that Christian discipleship can only be embarked upon with a sure foundation under foot. As part of a larger, forthcoming catechism initiative by Seedbed, this work seeks to anchor future resources recapturing basic Christian instruction.

for Advent...

The Christian New Year

For the followers of Jesus, the new year begins with Advent. And what a beginning it is as we start by looking to the end of the age and the second coming of Christ. Advent issues a clarion call to wake from our slumber, realign life, and get in step with the Holy Spirit. The Christian New Year unfolds a journey from the second coming all the way to Bethlehem and the first coming, setting the stage for the year ahead. Gather with family, friends, and neighbors and take the journey together. The Christian New Year will help us understand our calendar like never before and live into our times with the fullness of life.

Perfect for Sunday school classes, church-wide studies, and small groups, this study includes four supplementary video sessions from J. D. Walt.

for Lent...

A Jesus-Shaped Life

What if you could . . .

. . . break free from self-destructive sins?

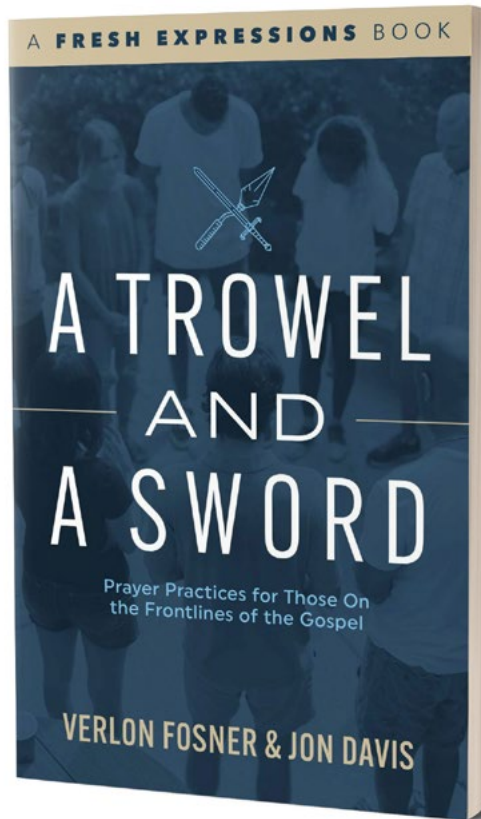

. . . see and love people like Jesus does?

. . . reflect Jesus' compassion, joy, and peace to others?

We are constantly being influenced by our families, the media, and even our cell phones. Yet God promises to shape us in to the image of Jesus. A Jesus-Shaped Life invites you to invest forty days in learning how to cooperate with the Holy Spirit as he transforms you from the inside-out. Over six weeks, you will explore selected aspects of Jesus' character and learn how God's grace can reproduce it in you. Spiritual exercises and discussion questions combine with daily meditations to create a valuable tool for becoming the person God created you to be.

Seedbed Featured Books

A Trowel and a Sword

Christians are in the business of kicking in the front door of the strongman and plundering his house—removing people he has worked hard to oppress. Accordingly, prayer must take on a declarative, bold, and authoritative tone. This book is for anyone on the frontlines of the gospel, whether it be at work redeeming neighborhoods, working with the most vulnerable, or leading prayer and evangelism efforts. [Companion DVD/streaming video also available]

Focusing My Gaze

The prophet Isaiah was allowed to see the Lord in all his glory. As Max Wilkins shows us, Isaiah focused his gaze in four different directions and discovered more about the Lord, himself, and his purpose in life in the process. This perspective is essential in the life of anyone who wants to experience the abundant life that can only be found in Jesus.

Jesus the Stranger

Ken Collins invites us to see Jesus in a new way—one that focuses on his humanity, especially in terms of his suffering and rejection by everyone from hometown folk to family members, from religious leaders to those who will ultimately seek his death. What emerges from this new vista is a more humane and approachable Jesus, one who can commiserate with the pain and sorrow of our own lives and one who can offer rich and abundant healing, the healing of holy love.

Living Room Liturgy

Worship doesn't just happen within a church building; it can—and must—also happen in our homes. Living Room Liturgy is designed to help you worship in the everyday moments of life. Containing liturgies and short prayers, this book can be used alongside a morning coffee, with your loved ones in your living room, or at your children's bedsides before they fall asleep. Establishing rhythms of liturgical prayer and worship outside of the sanctuary is a refreshing and grounding practice, sure to transform your home and those who live in it.

Seedbed Group Studies

Pure Hearted

Maintaining purity of heart in a sex-saturated world is a challenge for all believers. A glance becomes a gaze, a gaze can become an obsession, and obsession unchecked can bring the chains of addiction. Getting free can be maddening. In Pure Hearted, Mark Ongley shows us that freedom is possible, and banding together with a few trusted friends is a key to liberation! Are you ready for a journey to purity of heart?

PERFECT FOR:

- Anyone struggling with sexual bondage
- College groups
- Men's groups
- Discipleship bands

Overcoming Spiritual Slump

Spiritual depression is real! And it's okay to tell somebody, or to reach out with a small ember of faith to get some help. Let's not let the stigma around spiritual slump keep us from breaking through. In Overcoming Spiritual Slump, Lenny Luchetti gets personal about his own experience and offers a mix of encouragement and urgency. It may be just what the Spirit uses to help you get unstuck, or to give you language you need to help others. [Companion DVD/streaming video also available]

PERFECT FOR:

- Christians embarrassed or ashamed of being in a spiritual slump
- Church leaders needing a guide to lead congregants through spiritual depression
- Anyone who yearns to be awakened to God's love for them

The Experience

Jesus said, "I came that they may have life and have it abundantly" (John 10:10). Does your life resemble that abundant living that Jesus promised? So many people in our churches have not regularly experienced good news, comfort, wholeness, freedom, joy, or beauty. Perhaps you, those you love, or those you lead feel this way. The Experience provides a clear map of the abundant living journey, the obstacles that prevent progress, and offers fresh fuel for moving forward once again.

PERFECT FOR:

- Sunday school classes
- Small groups
- Discipleship bands

the awakened life

The greatest impediment to our own awakening is that we are pretty sure we are already awake. We don't know what we do not know. There is so much more of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, waiting to be discovered, delighted in and demonstrated in and through our lives. Awakening must begin and deepen in our own hearts. As goes our hearts so go our homes. As go our homes, so goes our churches. As go our churches, so goes our towns and cities.

The Awakened Life Course is a four week journey of Scripture, prayer, conversation, and transformation; all centered around the awakening and disciple-making mission of Jesus Christ. Expect to be challenged, encouraged, equipped and empowered for the important season of faith ahead.

The course will unfold over four weeks with the following subjects:

WEEK 1	October 4	Waking up to the Word of God
WEEK 2	October 11	Waking up to the Spirit of God
WEEK 3	October 18	Waking up to the Body of Christ
WEEK 4	October 25	Waking up to the Kingdom of God
